Aiming for new record

PUPILS at a Limehouse school are looking forward to breaking more attendance records after achieving the highest level in the borough.

Cyril Jackson Primary School in Limehouse celebrated the meteoric rise in attendance figures at the end of last term with free ice cream for all 462 pupils.

Three years ago, the school was towards the bottom of the borough's attendance league table. But with hard work, determination and support from children and parents, it now has the highest level of attendance.
